Automated market makers (AMMs) are part of the decentralized finance (DeFi) ecosystem. They allow digital assets to be traded in a permissionless and automatic way by using liquidity pools rather than a traditional market of buyers and sellers. AMM users supply liquidity pools with crypto tokens, whose prices are determined by a constant mathematical formula.

Direct access brokers who aren't solid don't remain in business for very long. The customers who would open a direct access trading account are savvy traders/investors who aren't going to put up with a sub-par product, so lackluster companies usually don't remain in business in this industry for very long.
