CFD trading is a method that enables individuals to trade and invest in an asset by engaging in a contract between themselves and a broker, instead of acquiring the asset directly. The trader and the broker agree between themselves to replicate market conditions and settle the difference between themselves when the position closes.

[1] The hypothetical performance results displayed on this website are hypothetical results in that they represent trades made in a demonstration (demo) account. Transaction prices were determined by assuming that buyers received the ask price and sellers the bid price of quotes Zulustrade US receives from the Forex broker at which a Signal Provider maintains a demo account.

Alternative ways of trading indices While CFDs offer an easy way to trade indices, its worth pointing out that there are other ways to trade indices on eToro. One alternative to trading CFDs is trading exchange-traded funds (ETFs). ETFs are investment funds that are designed to track the performance of a particular index or asset.
