After repeated attacks in 2019, the New Zealand-based Cryptopia exchange lost roughly $16 million to $18 million in crypto. Although services were later suspended, a court deemed in May 2020 that users of the exchange are entitled to have their holdings returned. This kickstarted the claims process, bringing some relief to the users.

I had noticed ads of bitcoin options trading and initially ignored them, but I just couldnt resist for very long. I should have known it was a mistake when they promised high profits, but I thought thats how the financial markets work.

The international money markets major responsibility is to handle the currency trading between the countries. This process of trading a countrys currency with another one is also known as forex trading. Unlike share markets, the international money market sees very large funds transfer. The players of the market are not individuals; they are very big financial institutions.

A good software engineer would code it in a way you don't have to worry about leaving enough coin to pay for the fee. Basically you just enter $3 you have in coins then the app calculates on its own to transfer only let say $2.97 and keep $0.03 as their pay. It is a junk software. A good merchant would make it easy for their customers.
