While there are other ways to purchase crypto, many people acquire crypto on cryptocurrency exchanges. Upon making a purchase, the cryptocurrency you acquired is automatically stored in your exchange-hosted wallet, which is typically custodial, meaning the exchange has control of your private keys. By holding your keys for you, crypto exchanges give you easier access to your funds via a more familiar username and password configuration, which allows you to trade seamlessly on the exchange.

Decentralized exchange or DEX is a cryptocurrency exchange market or platform that operates independently without any central authority or third-party intervention for holding or transfer of customers funds. Peer to peer or P2P transactions occur between interested parties directly through an exchange of crypto assets or cryptocurrencies. All these transactions take place through a decentralized escrow account and smart contracts.
