Cryptopia is a New Zealand exchange that remains a work in progress, both in terms of trader support, coin offerings and trading capabilities. Its also a target for scams, something all the coins in the world cant fix. The Cryptopia exchange enables two-factor authentication during the registration process, which is a plus for security.

Commodity Trading Commodity exchanges are formally recognized and regulated markeplaces where contracts are sold to traders. The seller of the contract agrees to sell and deliver a commodity at a set quantity, quality, and price at a given delivery date, while the buyer agrees to pay for this purchase.

After repeated attacks in 2019, the New Zealand-based Cryptopia exchange lost roughly $16 million to $18 million in crypto. Although services were later suspended, a court deemed in May 2020 that users of the exchange are entitled to have their holdings returned. This kickstarted the claims process, bringing some relief to the users.
