TradingView is not a broker but rather a charting platform showing you the world wide access to market data under the form of charts. I must say it is one of the best and most seamless charting platform I have ever seen. You can also make an account there and customize the chart to apply your method of analysis.

This API lets brokers build a bridge to connect their backend systems to the TradingView interface, so that broker partners then can be supported on the TradingView Web Platform. The integration is very straightforward. The broker builds a REST Web API on its own servers based on our specification so that it can be connected to TradingView. TradingView provides a sandbox and required technical assistance to get your TradingView Web Platform integration started.

IBKR is the best all around broker imo, but they won't take a $1k account. You need a margin account to short, but you can't day trade in a margin account without $25k (pattern day trader rules). You can day trade in a cash account, but then you have to wait for settlement. Tastyworks is $2k if you want margin account, but no minimum for a cash .
