What do we think of HYDRA? A scam or for the long run? - reddit

Videos for Crypto+options+trade

Hail Hydra. I think it used to be 180% apy. I don't remember what they do (something about hotels, I think), but they've kept those returns high for a few months now and saw a lot of growth (maybe bc so many are staking it). Its chart looks really nice at the moment, but I guess many do today.

It was renamed to HYDRA somewhere along the way. This is unfortunate because Hyrda (HYD) was another crypto from Internet of People (IOP) a while back that as far as I can tell is now defunct. Then you have the Hyrda network that Cardano is on. Again, no relation. Oof. It seems naming and marketing crypto is going to be more important than some .

I've been soft staking HYDRA on Kucoin for 170-180% APY. Since doing so, HYDRA's price has increased greatly and I've got a very good return on investment already. I'm thinking of cashing out as I don't know if HYDRA is in it for the long run or if it's a shitcoin that's going to down massively soon.

The main differences between trading traditional options versus crypto options are that the crypto market runs 24/7, whereas traditional financial markets are only open Monday to Friday 9:30 a.m..

Centralized crypto is somewhere between decentralized crypto and the traditional system, but it is the worst of both worlds. Centralized crypto is not immutable (transactions can be reversed, look at ETC), it's not trustless and it's not censorship resistant which are the most important benefits of a decentralized blockchain.
